

NAI is supporting Rare Disease Day 28th February 2021

DID YOU KNOW?

- It is estimated that nearly a third of genetic rare conditions are neurological or have neurological symptoms
- People with rare neurological conditions often wait years for the correct diagnosis
- Integrated pathways and centres of excellence for rare neurological disease are vital to speeding up diagnosis, improving care and driving research